ORDER:

Proceedings, dated 08-10-1994, in regularizing the services to respondents 6 to 9 with effect from 25-09-1994 and in not filing up the vacancies as per G.O.Rt.No.1271, dated 08-08-1986, is impugned in this writ petition.

Sri Krishna Murthy, learned counsel appearing on behalf of Sri V.Ajay Kumar, learned counsel for the petitioner, would submit that in view of the subsequent changes in law and since in the light of the subsequent events, the cause in the writ petition does not survive, this court may permit the petitioner to withdraw the writ petition with liberty to file a writ petition afresh.

The writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn. Since dismissal of the writ petition would not disentitle the petitioner from challenging events which arose subsequent to the filing of the writ petition, in accordance with law, the question of granting liberty to withdraw the writ petition does not arise. No order as to costs.
